CHAPTER: 8 ADMINISTRATION	SUBJECT: Acceptance of Service for Legal Process
APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER:
EFFECTIVE DATE: 10/11/11
APPROVED FOR PUBLIC RELEASE

I. AUTHORITY: 11 Del. C. §6517 and 29 Del. C. §8903

II. PURPOSE: An essential component of Due Process is adequate notice and appropriate opportunity to respond to allegations. Occasionally process servers come to Department of Correction facilities to serve legal documents upon the Department and/or the Department's employees. The purpose of this policy is to allow the Department and its employees the ability to comply with legal obligations with respect to legal proceedings and to ensure legally adequate notice and opportunity to respond in legal proceedings.

III. APPLICABILITY: All Department employees

IV. DEFINITIONS:

Complaint: A document filed with a court to commence legal action.

Deposition Subpoena: An order for a non-party to appear at a deposition before a Subpoenaing party to testify and/or produce business records listed in the Subpoena for copying.

Legal Documents: Documents issued by a court, officer of the court, attorney, government agency or administrative agency requiring the Department or any Division or Bureau of the Department to appear in court, provide testimony, documents, records, or property, or to take or refrain from taking some action. Examples of legal documents include, but are not limited to: subpoenas, court pleadings pertaining to a lawsuit (summonses, complaints, court orders, interrogatories, notices of deposition, requests for production of documents, notices to admit, and all other forms of demands for disclosure), restraining orders, garnishments and mechanics liens.

Process Server: Federal or State of Delaware officials or persons employed by an attorney or attorney service who serve Subpoenas or Complaints.

SUBJECT: Acceptance of Service for Legal Process

Subpoena: A writ or order directed to a person requiring appearance at a particular time and place to testify as a witness, which may also require that the witness bring specified records. (The appearance of a witness may not always be required so long as the person produces the specified records at the time and place indicated on the Subpoena.)

Subpoena Duces Tecum: An order for a witness to appear at court and bring copies of records listed in the Subpoena.

Summons: An order to appear in a court of law.

V. BACKGROUND: For the purpose of this policy, legal documents are of two basic types: (A) Summonses and Complaints, and (B) Subpoenas. Once service of a summons and complaint has been accepted, it is likely that any designated time period in which a response must be filed has commenced. Knowing this timeframe is critical to providing proper legal advice to the Department and its employees. Accordingly, any acceptance of a summons or complaint should be immediately communicated to an employee's supervisor and the State of Delaware Department of Justice.

For Summonses and Complaints, the defendant is likely required to respond to the Complaint within a specific period of time after he or she is served with a copy of it, together with a copy of the Summons. The delivery of copies of the Summons and Complaint to the defendant is commonly called "service of process".

The other type of legal process which may be served is a Subpoena, a Subpoena Duces Tecum or a Deposition Subpoena. The law may require the recipient of a Subpoena Duces Tecum or a Deposition Subpoena to furnish copies of business records or other records in the possession or control of the recipient. Occasionally, this may be accomplished by mail in lieu of a personal appearance.

VI. POLICY: It is essential that acceptance of any legal process only occurs with proper and sufficient authorization. Individuals not given express authority or permission to receive legal process for the Department or an individual employee of the Department should not have authority to accept service of process. In these instances, the individual should inform the person attempting to serve process that he/she is not authorized to accept service of process for that entity or individual.

The Office of the Commissioner is generally responsible for receiving Subpoenas and Summonses. Unless specifically authorized in writing, agency personnel are not authorized to accept Subpoenas (or Summonses) on behalf of the Department. The Process Server may be told to serve the Subpoena (or Summons) to the following address: Department of Correction, Office of the Commissioner, 245 McKee Road, Dover, DE 19904. If, after informing a process server that the employee is not authorized to accept legal documents on behalf of the State of Delaware, Department of Correction or any employee, the process server insists on leaving documents, they must be promptly delivered to the Legal Process Coordinator (LPC) office, together with the envelope, any packaging, and an explanation of when and how the employee gained possession of the legal documents. If a process server persists in leaving documents after they have been advised that the employee is not authorized to receive process, the employee shall sign the receipt of service form with their name and the following language: I am not authorized to receive service of process on behalf of this individual and must refuse to accept service at this time.

Subpoenas requesting specific Departmental records are handled by the appropriate Legal Process Coordinator. See Attachment A for a list of coordinators and the corresponding subject matter.

If anyone not affiliated with the Department or the Department's legal counsel requests a sworn statement from a Departmental employee or for Departmental records without providing a subpoena or similar legal paper, the Legal Process Coordinator's (LPC) office should be contacted immediately. The LPC will determine if the material may be provided under applicable law and if a legal paper is required prior to disclosure. Any production of documents or sworn testimony provided outside of this policy, other than to counsel for the Department or departmental employees, may violate federal and/or state law.

VII. PROCEDURES:

A. Summons and Complaint - Civil Action

1. When the State of Delaware Department of Correction or a Division or Bureau of the Department of Correction is named as a Defendant:
 - a. Departmental employees, other than the designated LPCs, are not authorized to accept a Summons and Complaint on behalf of the State of Delaware or Department of Correction;

SUBJECT: Acceptance of Service for Legal Process

- b. All attempts to serve must be referred to the Department's LPC or other individuals authorized in writing as set forth in Attachment B.
2. When the State of Delaware or Department of Correction and an Individual Employee are named as Defendants together:
 - a. The Individual Employee should accept service on his or her own behalf but make it clear that he or she is not accepting for the State of Delaware and/or the Department of Correction;
 - b. The Individual Employee should write a short memorandum or email to the LPC stating the time, date of acceptance and how the documents were served (by mail, personal service, or left with someone else);
 - c. The Individual Employee should refer the Process Server to the LPC regarding service attempts on the State of Delaware or Department of Correction;
 - d. The Individual Employee should immediately contact the Delaware Department of Justice's Civil Division regarding any personal acceptance of legal process. The phone number for the Department of Justice is (302) 577-8400. The Department of Justice will coordinate with the employee regarding potential legal representation and the appropriate course of action.
3. When an Individual Employee is the named Defendant and service is being attempted at the location where the employee is actually present and on duty :
 - a. The named Individual should accept service;
 - b. Service may also be accepted by anyone who has been authorized to receive process for another in writing per a validly executed form contained in Attachment B:
 - A summons should be accepted only for employees working at the particular location
 - The person receiving the summons must deliver it to the employee(s) named as soon as possible. If practicable, the named individual should be summoned to personally accept service.

- c. If the suit is against a Departmental employee regarding a personal matter which does not arise out of the course and scope of his or her employment there is no Departmental involvement. In such a case, the named individual should contact his or her own attorney;
- d. If questions remain, the LPC will assist directly, or refer questions to agency legal counsel.

B. Subpoenas - Civil Action (Subpoena, Subpoena Duces Tecum, or Deposition Subpoena)

1. When the State of Delaware, Department of Correction, or a Division or Bureau of the Department of Correction is named as a Defendant:
 - a. Other than the authorized LPCs, Departmental personnel are not authorized to accept a subpoena on behalf of the State of Delaware or Department of Correction;
 - b. All attempts to serve legal process in active civil matters must be referred to the appropriate attorney of record. Process Servers should be directed to the appropriate attorney through the LPC.
2. When the State of Delaware, Department of Correction, or a Division or Bureau of the Department of Correction and an Individual Employee are Defendants together:
 - a. Individual Employee or an LPC authorized to accept service by the individual employee should accept service on his or own behalf, but make it clear that he or she is not accepting for the State of Delaware or Department of Correction;
 - b. The Individual Employee or authorized LPC should note the time, date of acceptance and how the documents were served (by mail, personal service, or left with someone else) and immediately contact the Individual Employee's attorney of record;
 - c. The Individual Employee should refer the Process Server to the appropriate attorney of record regarding any attempted service upon the State of Delaware or Department of Correction;

STATE OF DELAWARE	POLICY NUMBER	PAGE NUMBER
DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION	8.63	6 of 6
SUBJECT: Acceptance of Service for Legal Process

- d. The Individual Employee should immediately notify the Individual Employee's attorney (or the Delaware Department of Justice's Civil Division if no attorney has been assigned) about personal acceptance of legal process. The attorney of record will discuss with the employee the appropriate course of action.

3. When Departmental Records are requested:

- a. The Custodian of Records (who may be called to appear as a Witness) or the LPC is required to accept service;
- b. The Department shall make a reasonable attempt to first notify any current employee before the release of their records pursuant to any subpoena request;
- c. In no case should any subpoenaed records be delivered to a Process Server or to a party to litigation without legal approval. The LPC should be contacted immediately upon receipt of a Subpoena.
- d. When a witness is required to appear at a court trial or deposition, the Department may be legally entitled to a per diem for attendance in a civil case; however, when the Department is a party to the action, the fee is normally waived.

C. Subpoenas in a Criminal Action

Such Subpoenas may require the attendance of an individual to testify in court, before a Grand Jury, or other legally empowered body. The following shall apply to subpoenas in relation to criminal matters:

1. The named Individual Employee must personally accept service of process;
2. The named Individual Employee must notify (unless otherwise prohibited by law) the LPC if the Department of Correction is a named party.
3. Criminal subpoenas directed to the State of Delaware, Department of Correction, or an unnamed individual such as a records custodian shall only be accepted by the LPC.
